DEDICATION

Mr. John Amstein

TEACHER, ADVISOR, DEPARTMENT HEAD, FRIEND: To the Salmagundi staff Mr. Amstein represents the best in all of the above and we are proud that this memory book has this special place for him.

As a teacher you may have been demanding, responsive and fair. You have helped to develop in us those qualities of scholarly inquisition that have led to self motivation and self discipline so necessary in what is to come.

As an Advisor you been creative, open and firm, teaching us that successful programs will follow well conceived ideas carefully planned. You forced us to think before we acted and along with Mrs. Landry, have put us in "good shape" for a high finish.

Your impact as Science Department Head has touched all of us. Under your leadership the Science Department has provided us with a curriculum that is appropriate to our needs.

As a friend you have been willing to listen and give us honest advice, not always what we wanted to hear, but an answer that reflected your interest in us as people.

We dedicate this book to you as a representative of an outstanding faculty that has helped us prepare for the future.

PROFESSIONAL STAFF
KEENE SCHOOL DISTRICT
KEENE, N.H.

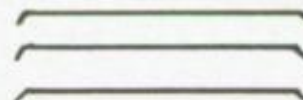

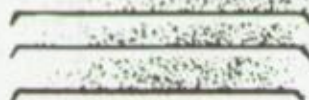

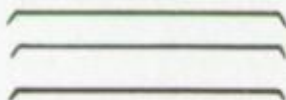

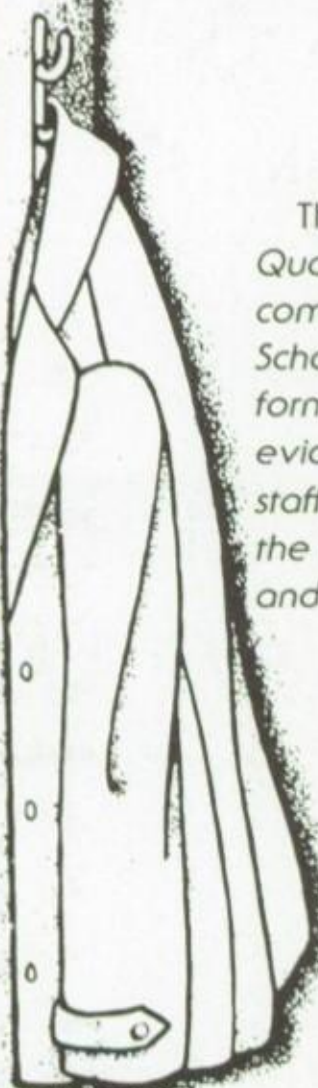

QUALITY

"A standard or degree of excellence."

DESIGN

"A scheme in which means to an end are laid down."

The Salmagundi staff salutes the Keene School District theme of Quality Education by Design. The class of 1986 is a living product of this commitment. Academic achievement is synonymous with Keene High School, a tribute to its committed staff. Individual, group and team performance across a wide spectrum of extracurricular activities also gives evidence of this quality. Throughout this book we acknowledge those staff and students at Keene High who translate this theme into reality; in the next several pages we would like to pay tribute to those people and places that prepared us for Keene High School.

President Message

To the Class of 1986.

Throughout our past four years at Keene High School we have shared many experiences which have widened our outlook on life. As a class, '86 has many athletic, extra-curricular, and scholastic achievements that we can be rightfully proud of. However, the success of our class will not be fully determined by our accomplishments while in school, but rather by our individual accomplishments in the future.

Our high school years are a foundation upon which we must build. Graduation is a beginning rather than an end. Be an individual by achieving your personal goal. Take what you have gained at Keene High and achieve. I wish you my very best for a future filled with happiness.

Sincerely,
Mandi Silk

The Lions Club has been an avid contributor to the Junior Lions for twenty-nine years. Fifteen young were selected by merit; they exemplify leadership, dependability, and excellence in academics. These junior boys were invited to four lunches with many of the businessmen of the Monadnock Region. The Lions Club trademark is their involvement with funding local conservation projects.

1985-86 edition of Keene High School Student Council led by its advisor, Mr. White and his assistant, Mrs. Whippie created an environment that reflected their enthusiasm and service to Keene High School. The very successful homecoming event in the Fall, the Fall and Winter athletic recognition assemblies, several very successful dances and plans for an active role in the Spring Showcase. They have also been very active as a governing body responding to questions and participating on panels that were part of the decision-making process for the high school. They have indeed set a fine example for student councils that succeed them.

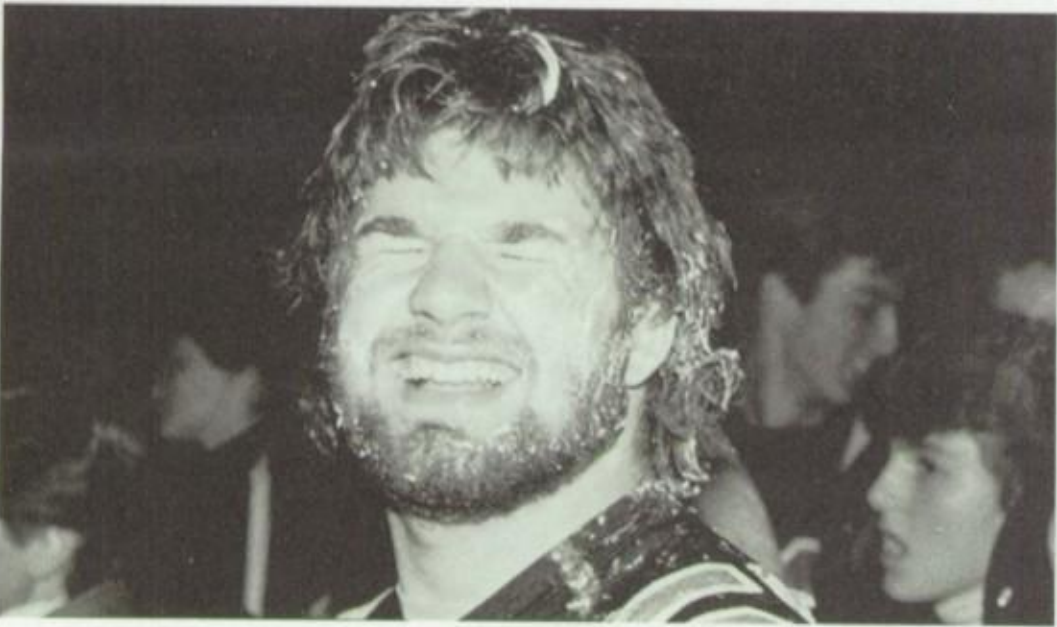

Homecoming

Janice Hicks, Monica Lougee, Threse Zimmer, Tina Purrington, Lori Piscitello, Mandi Silk, Scott Brennan, Jason Gatley, Bill Hope, Chris Sy.
Mandy Silk and Scott Brennan were named Homecoming King and Queen.

The 1985 homecoming event was the most successful event in recent years. The spirit and enthusiasm generated was exciting and served as a high point of the fall season. The event capped off Spirit Week with a pep rally, bon fire with skirts and competitions on Friday night and the traditional Homecoming parade on Saturday. The floats were exceptionally well done and the Future Farmers of America joined in the festivities with an excellent float. The soccer and football games were followed by a reception and dance.
